4355. SHRI SANATAN BISI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:"

(a) the defaulting borrowers of banks and financial institutions at the end of April, 1995;

(b) what steps are being taken to improve dicipline among borrowers and to recover outstanding debts; and

(c) how many suits have been filed for recovery of debts?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) to (c) The information is being collected and to the extent available will be laid on the Table of the House.

Tax Relief on Widely Consumed Articles

4356. SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA: SHRI DILIP SINGH JUDEV:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state: (a) what is the basic consideration for identification of "widely consumed articles" and articles of mass consumption" for the purpose allowing tax relief in the 1995-96 Budget;

(b) whether the detergent, nearly 70 per cent of which is produced in the non-cower detergent sector and consumed entirely by the poor and lower middle class, is an essential commodity of mass consumption;

(c) if so, why detergent is subjected to 30 per cent since 1991-92 and no relief on the tax burden on detergent has been considered necessary since then;

(d) whether there is any other "widely consumed" and "common consuption' manufactured goods which is subject to same level of duty of 30 percent;

(e) whether Government will consider reduction of duty on detergent also in consonance with its commitment to reduce excise duty burden on "widely consumed" and "Common consumption' and

(f) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRE OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) Excise duty on goods is prescribed taking into account all relevant considerations, including its nature, pattern of con-suumption and use, demand and supply position, and general class of consumers.

(b) and (c) The prices of detergents vary widely and they are used by large coross section of the people. For the present the excise duty 30 per cent is considered as appropriate rate of duty on detergents;

(d) Goods, such as, instant coffee, pan masala, aerated water, cigarettes, chewing tobacco, snuff, white cement, cosmetics and toilet preparatioas, attract excise duty of 30 per cent or higher:

(e) and (f): At present there is no proposal under consideration of the Government to reduce excise duty on detergents.

Profits earned by Nationalised banks

4357. SMT. ANANDIBEN JETHABHAI PATEL: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) how many nationalised banks are making profit;

lb) whether Government have given any guidelines to nationalised banks for increasing profitability; and

(c) what are the deposits and advances figures of all the nationalised banks?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that out of 19 nationalised banks, which have published their balance sheets for the year ended 31st March.

1994, only 7 banks have shown profits.

(b) Government and RBI have been impressing upon the banks the need to strengthen their credit appraisal machinery and exercise close supervision of Non-Performing Assets (NPAs). Banks have also set up recovery cells at their headquarters under the charge of their General Managers to exclusively monitor the recovery of NPAs. Branch- wise targets have also been fixed for recovery of NPAs. Performance of branches in recovery is to be monitored at Head Office levels on a monthly basis by the Chief Executives. The Board of Directors are required to be kept informed by the Banks about the progress in recovery at quarterly intervals. Targets for re-coveryreduction of NPAs have also been fixed by RBI:

(c) The deposits and advances of nationalised banks as on 31-3-94 are given in the statement.
